

Registering Mathematica 7 for Students

Follow the steps below to register your copy of Mathematica 7 on a Mac computer.

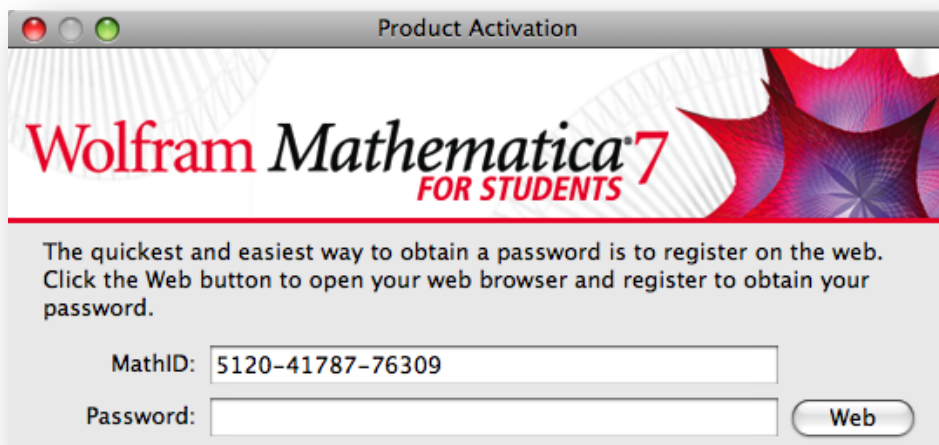

Register Your Copy of Mathematica 7

1. When you launch Mathematica for the first time, select Single-Machine License and enter the code L3010-1327 in the License number box. Filling out the Name and Organization boxes are optional and will not affect the program. Click OK.

The screenshot shows the 'Product Activation' dialog box for Wolfram Mathematica 7 FOR STUDENTS. The window title is 'Product Activation'. The dialog has a decorative header with the product name and a colorful fractal graphic. Below the header, it says 'Please select your installation type and enter the required information below.' There are two radio buttons: 'Single-Machine License' (selected) and 'Other Ways to Register'. Under 'Single-Machine License', there are three text input fields: 'Name' (containing 'Jane Student'), 'Organization' (containing 'Buffalo State'), and 'License number' (containing 'L3010-1327'). At the bottom, there is a note: 'A machine-specific password will be required. Please enter your name, organization, and license number. Then click OK to continue.'

2. If you have an Internet connection, click the Web button register your copy of Mathematica and obtain a password. Otherwise, click the Other Ways to Register button.

The screenshot shows the 'Product Activation' dialog box for Wolfram Mathematica 7 FOR STUDENTS. The window title is 'Product Activation'. The dialog has a decorative header with the product name and a colorful fractal graphic. Below the header, it says 'The quickest and easiest way to obtain a password is to register on the web. Click the Web button to open your web browser and register to obtain your password.' There are two text input fields: 'MathID' (containing '5120-41787-76309') and 'Password'. To the right of the 'Password' field is a button labeled 'Web'.

3. Select I want to register a product and generate a password and click Continue.
4. Select the product you want to register (Macintosh; 7.0.0; Single User; 2 processes) and click Continue.
5. Complete the registration form, making sure to use your Buffalo State e-mail address, and click Continue.

Note In order to use the full version of Mathematica 7, you must be a registered student and use a valid Buffalo State e-mail address when you register your copy. If you aren't currently registered for classes, or if you use an e-mail address other than your Buffalo State address, you will not be able to use Mathematica.

6. Once you complete the registration form, you'll receive an e-mail from the Computing Help Desk within one business day; the e-mail will contain your password. In the example below, the password is the string of numbers beginning with 9156 following the license number (L3010-1327).
